

Terms and conditions for the connect business demo portal

1 Introduction and registration

1.1 To register for the demo portal the user has to provide the information requested in the registration process, including e-mail address (user name) and password. The password must consist of at least eight characters, a special character and a number.

1.2 The user is obliged to handle the password and user name confidentially and takes full responsibility for the use of his password and account, either by himself or by third parties. The user is solely responsible for all activities carried out in his account. The User is obliged to notify the provider immediately as soon as the user experiences an unauthorized use of his account or any different security risks.

1.3 The processing of personal data in accordance with the German Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz) is governed by the regulations on the use of data according to Annex I of the framework contract between the customer and the provider.

1.4 If the user uses the services in the name or on behalf of a third party, the user ensures that the user is fully authorized to act in the name or on behalf of the third party and effectively binds the third party to this agreement and that in the relationship between the user and this third party, the third party has all rights to the customer data or all claims on the customer data in the relevant accounts.